What Am I Doing Nowadays ?

On one hand, I've been studying advanced Java programming (including Spring Framework and Hibernate) in a course at Duzce University. On the other hand, I've been learning Angular and developing .NET web projects to enhance my skills. You can check out my projects on my GitHub profile.

Experience

Aphel Software A.S.

While I was doing my summer internship at Aphel, I developed both the Minesweeper and Wordle games and gained valuable experience. Additionally, I had the opportunity to work with MongoDB, expanding my skill set with this new technology.
